

Educational materials developed as a part of the project:

”Against the flowing wave”. Improving the competences of people working with youth with intellectual disabilities in the field of teaching safe use of water (swimming pool, lake, sea, etc.)

Project implemented by the Apertus Association under the Erasmus + Program

Project duration: 01/09/2019 - 31/03/2020

Financing from the European Union Erasmus + program:
EUR 9128,00

Cultural preparation of beneficiaries -
"We learn about culture, customs and living conditions in Iceland"

The main purpose of classes conducted as part of cultural preparation is:
 learning about the culture, customs and living conditions in Iceland;
 preparation of beneficiaries for the promotion of our country, region and city.

The beneficiaries' cultural preparation includes issues in the field of:
 culture, customs and living conditions in the host partner's country, with a particular focus on Iceland's present day and cultural customs, cultural differences and similarities and showing their impact on the process of interpersonal communication, promotion of our country, region and city.

Workshops within the framework of cultural preparation include 10 lessons

Course topics:	number of hours:
Culture, customs and living conditions in Iceland	2
Contemporary and cultural customs of the inhabitants of Iceland	2
Cultural differences and similarities, their impact on the process of interpersonal communication.	2
Iceland's cultural and tourist assets	2
Cultural and tourist values of Kępno and the surrounding area	2
Total:	10

EFFECTS:

Course participants will know the culture, customs and living conditions in the host partner's country, with particular emphasis on the present day and cultural customs. Thanks to the knowledge of cultural similarities and differences, students will find it easier to find themselves in a new environment during training. They will also be prepared to promote our country and region